Summer Reading Challenge 2024

June 1 – August 31

This is just a little challenge for a bit of fun. Try to complete at least two BINGO's (5 in a row, column, or diagonally) during the months of June, July, and August, using the themes given in the boxes. To increase the challenge, try to fill in the whole card! I'm not here to check on you, so do the best you can and see how far you go. I will post my progress on the Cat's Corner website blog, Facebook, and Instagram. If you feel like sharing, I would love to know what everyone else is reading!
